We, the class of 1965, are happy to present the Sixteenth Edition of the MARTINIAN.

This year has brought triumphs as well as disappointments. However, it is with an optimistic outlook that we turn our faces toward the future.

Whenever you review this edition of the MARTINIAN, we hope that you will fondly recall the wonderful experiences the class of 1965 spent at Thomas W. Martin High School.

Editor
JUDY GURGANUS

His name . . . and memory . . . our school will retain; but his friendship and helpfulness are gone . . . and cannot be replaced.

THOMAS WESLEY MARTIN

1881 - 1964

JANELL LOCKHART

1953-1964

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

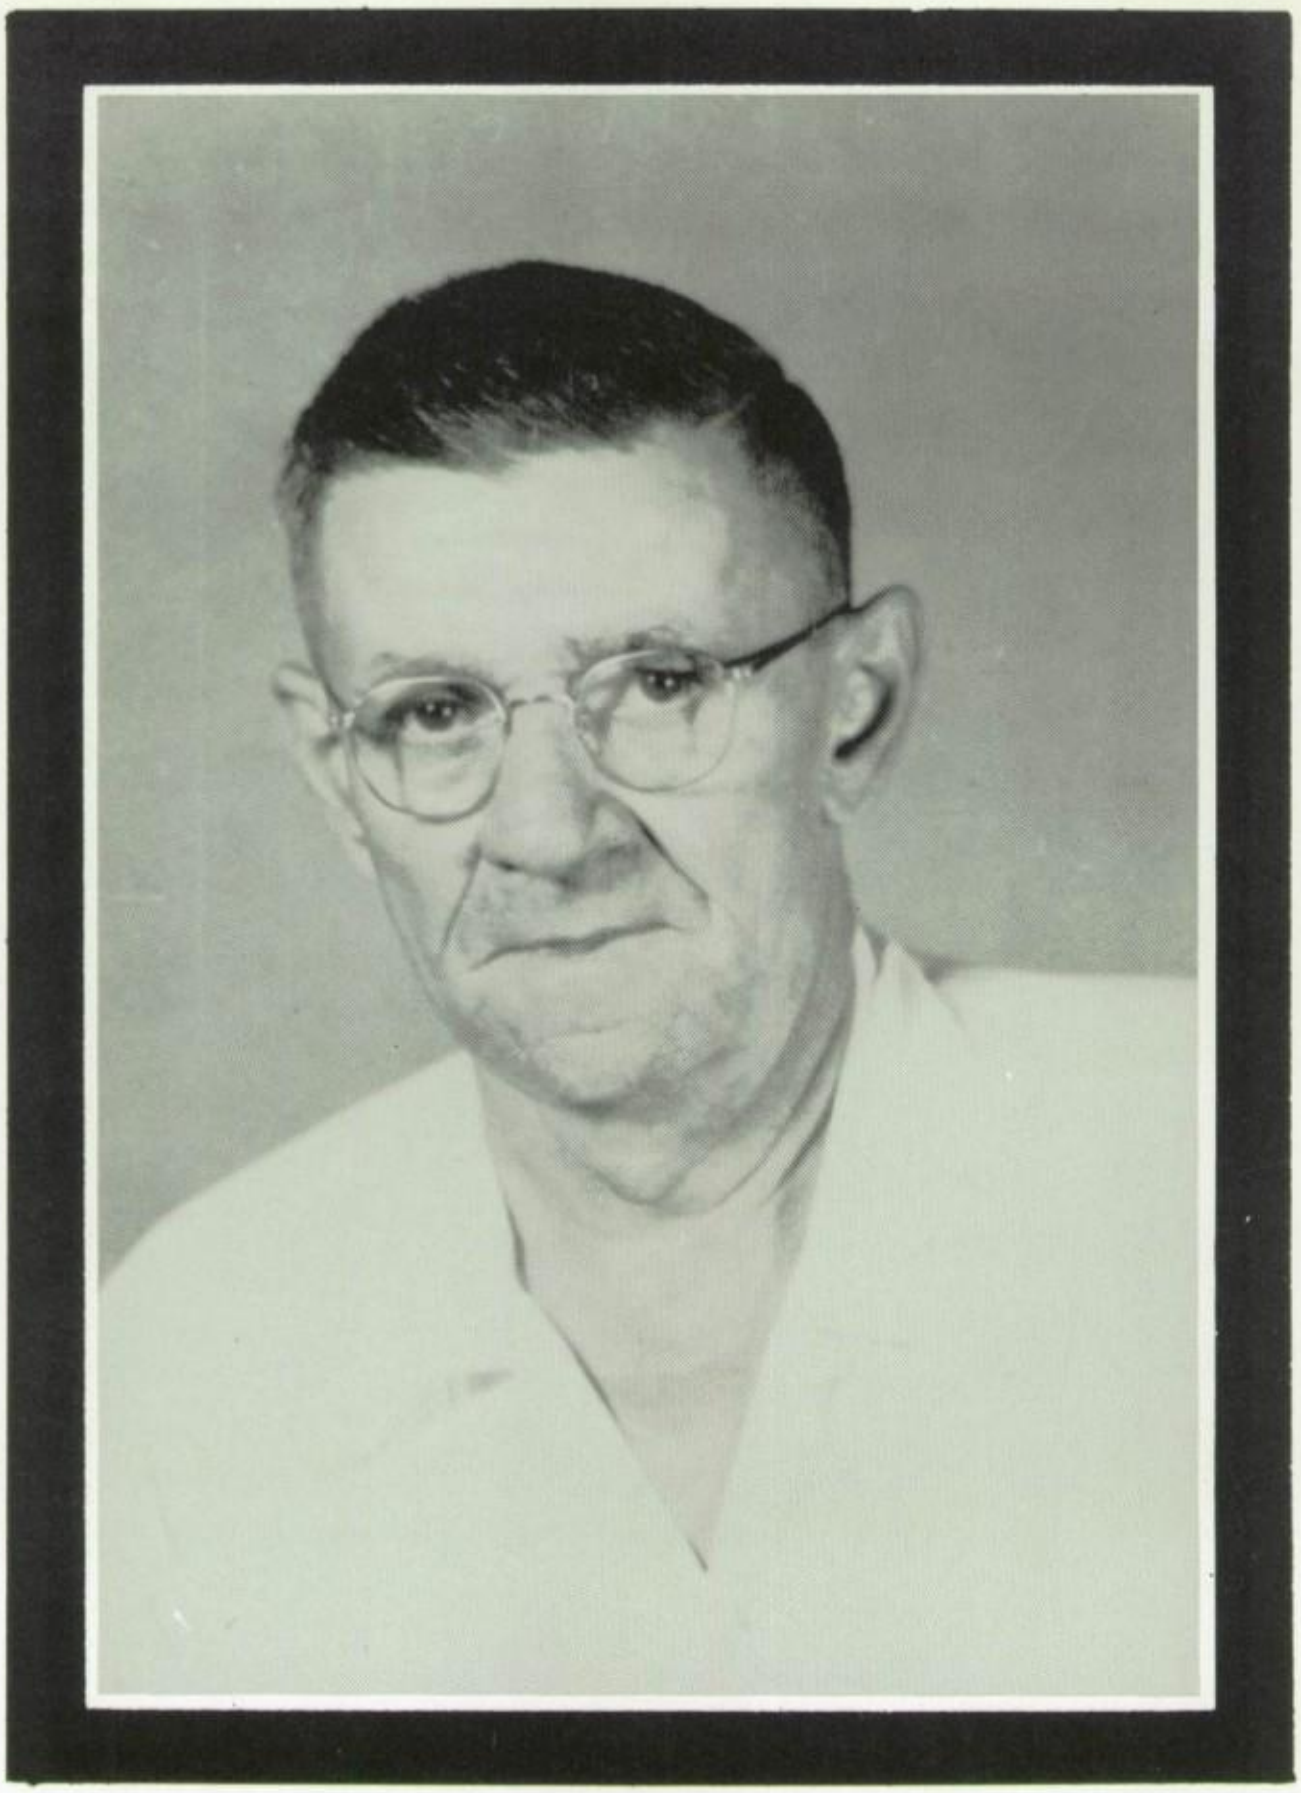
And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

Matthew 18: 1-5



Dedication

What we call school is a complex institution dependent upon many varied operations in addition to the main task of teaching. Our custodian, Mr. Clinton Cottrell, has faithfully and efficiently performed his duties for many years; and although his efforts have often gone unnoticed, they have, nevertheless, been absolutely essential. And, on so many occasions he has gone far beyond the call of duty to help with school activities. When he retires, he will be greatly missed. So, in appreciation for his service to us we dedicate this edition of the MARTINIAN and express our highest regard.

Superintendent's Message

Youth is not a time of life--it is a state of mind. It is a temper of the will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of the emotions. It is a freshness of the deep springs of life. Youth means a predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite of adventure over the love of ease. You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt; as young as your self-confidence, as old as your fear; as young as your hope, as old as your despair.

Life's greatest adventure is in doing one's level best. Some men succeed because they are destined to, but most men because they are determined to.

If you do the best and the most you can today, don't worry about tomorrow. Better to do a little well than a great deal poorly.

A man who keeps his shoulder to the wheel is rarely seen giving others trouble. He's like a mule in the respect that when he's pulling, he can't kick, and when he's kicking, he can't pull.

A man who trusts men will make fewer mistakes than the man who distrusts them. It takes a truly good man to have confidence in the goodness of others. It is better to suffer wrong than to do it, and happier to be sometimes cheated than not to trust.

As long as your conscience is your friend, never mind about your enemies.

Because you have occasional spells of despondency, don't despair. The sun has a sinking spell every night, but it rises again all right the next morning. All problems become smaller if you don't dodge them but confront them. There are no hopeless situations; there are only men who have grown hopeless about them.

Smile and conserve your energy--it takes fewer muscles to smile than to frown. Hold fast to your illusions--they'll keep you young and happy.

Perhaps many years ago you committed the golden rule to memory. Let me urge you not to forget to commit it to your life as well.

Very sincerely yours,

Robert E. Cunningham

Robert E. Cunningham,
Superintendent

Principal's Message

Education is one of the keys to a useful, successful life. The quality of education depends upon the price you pay. The higher the price, the better the quality just as in the case of material goods.

Thomas W. Martin High School wishes for you the key which will open the door to a happy and highly successful life.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of the Thomas W. Martin High School, town of Gorgas, County of Walker, and State of Alabama, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this, our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

We, as a class, bequeath to you the Senior Clas of sixty-six our joint estate. We leave you with Miss White and Mr. Wylie, our greatest treasures. Their understanding and guidance are invaluable, so treat them with kindness and appreciation.

I, J. N. Goswick, will my mastery of English to James Lockhart.

I, Billy Perry, will my typing skill and my high-speed, "air-cooled" typewriter and shelf that comes out to Margaret Minor.

I, Getina Hicks, will my ability to get quietest in the senior class to Nina Perry, Carolyn Carmichael, and Sue Jent.

We, Bettye Chappell and Anne Short, will our hidden beauty and ability to flirt with all the good looking boys to Darlene Richardson and Judy Lockhart.

I. Gerald Key, will my ability to scratch off in front of the school to David Chappell.

I, Bonnie Faye Chappell, will my "wrecked" typing nerves and habits to Nina Perry.

I, Drucilla Jones, will my unknown traits to Becky Brown; I certainly hope that she can find them.

I, Voncile Wright, will my title as Most Athletic to Jennifer "Pro" Glover.

I, Nancy Ferguson, will Elaine Fondren another delightful year of Physical Ed. Think you'll last?

I, Mike Robbins, will my height and ability to Ronald Naramore and J. C. Hyche. Better luck to you all with it.

I, Martha Sanford, will my ability to get Most Dignified to Margaret Minor because if she gets it, she won't know how she got it either!

I, Tommy Stockton, will nothing to nobody because it took all I had to get this far.

We, Hollace Hyche and Vera Sexton, will our ability to make 89 hamburgers in one morning to Brenda Cook and Jan Hyche.

I, Phyllis Groves, will my ability to get sweetest of the senior class to Mary Ann Goswick.

I, Eva Key, will my high times and low grades in my senior year to Glenda Short. Have fun, "sis"

I, Scott Short, will my "gold" plated comb to David Craft and Wallace Jett.

I, Everett Teske, will my ability to finish school early to Ray Smith.

I, Marsha Snow, will my title of Good Looking in Who's Who and Miss Martin High Crown to Jennifer Key.

I, Nell Hartley, will my red hair and good looks to Paula Hooker and Linda Palmer.

I, Margie Chappell, will my desire to turn the ocean into boys and live on the beach forever to Shela Keeton and Linda Sanford.

I, Jennie Sanford, will my shortness and size 3 petite dresses to Wanda Walden and Bertha Sadberry.

I, Judy Gurganus, will my title of Good Citizenship Girl to Jackie Thompson.

I, Johnny Jent, will my ability to always be picked on by Miss White to Johnny Cotton.

I, Reba Berry, will my ability to get Most Versatile in Who's Who to Paula Hooker.

I, Dewayne Estes, will my ability to get Most Dignified in the Senior class to Jimmy Stephenson.

I, David Brasfield, will my ability to be called out of class and talked to by Miss White to Jim Laird; he needs it worse than I.

I, Phil Jones, will my ability to chew gum in Miss White's English class without being caught to Rodger Short and Roger Key.

I, Billy Jackson, will my ability to wreck cars to Jimmy Thacker.

I, Jimmy Cook will my window pole (the one that opens and closes the windows) to Ray Smith.

I, Johnny Gross, will my ability to get a broken bone every year I played football to Steve "Tick" Tittle.

I, Eddy Richards, will my love for football and my scars, lumps, and bruises to Ronald Naramore.

I, Gary Oliver, will my title of Lawyer to Alfred "Honeybun" Woods.

Dear Drucilla,

It is a great pleasure to offer my congratulations to you on having been named the Homemaker of Tomorrow for your school.

You, your family and your teachers must all be very proud of the fine homemaking qualities you have shown yourself to possess and which have earned you this special recognition.

Such an achievement promises a bright future for you, I know--in school, in work and someday as a real-life homemaker--the most important career a woman can have.

Best wishes always.
